

GLOBAL DISCOVERY PROGRAM

SEOUL

EXPLORING ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY IN KOREA

EACH STUDENT RECEIVES A 50% SCHOLARSHIP, UP TO $1,500; TRAVEL ONLY.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Attend a Special Education class at Ewha University in Seoul, South Korea.
- Visit Assistive Technology / Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AT/AAC) related sites to see how AT services are provided.
- Visit the BEAR BETTER company, where 230 employees with developmental disabilities work.
- Gain an understanding of potential cultural difference towards individuals with disabilities and AT/AAC.

PROGRAM EXCURSIONS

- Seoul Full-Day Tour
- Korean Food Night

PROGRAM FACULTY

Dr. Yoosun Chung

ychung3@gmu.edu

PROGRAM MANAGER

Allie Wallace

awalla@gmu.edu

DATES AND DEADLINE

Travel: March 8-14, 2020

Apply by November 25, 2019

CREDITS AND COURSES

EDAT 421/521 DL1:

Augmentative Communication
(Travel Required)

SPRING BREAK 2020

/MasonStudyAbroad

@MasonGlobal

StudyAbroad.gmu.edu