COURSE DESCRIPTION

Covers biological, behavioral, and sociocultural factors in human sexual behavior.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Develop a solid basic understanding of biological, social, and psychological components of their human sexuality.
2. Form and express educated attitudes and viewpoints on several aspects of human sexuality through the interpretation of readings, lectures, guest speakers, and open discussion with peers.
3. Form and express rational and responsible decisions concerning their human sexuality and development.
4. Write and discuss the value of human sexuality education with professional teachers as well as the community.

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course relies, in part, on the use of explicit visual teaching aids such as slides, films and video clips. These materials may portray nudity, masturbation, and examples of sexual behavior. Every effort is made to present those materials in a mature and scientific manner. A person who would be offended by frank discussions and/or visual portrayals of human sexual behavior may not a good candidate for this class.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner appropriate to a college classroom. Any student whose behavior is inappropriate or destructive to the learning environment will be asked to leave the class.

NATURE OF COURSE DELIVERY

Face to face

CLASSROOM POLICIES

- Please be on time to class. If a student needs to come in late- please do so quietly as to not disrupt others. It is expected that students attend all classes. Failure to attend will result in missed points that will result in a lower course grade. Requests for exceptions must be submitted in writing to the Instructor prior to missing class.
- This class has a REQUIRED Blackboard component. It is important that students check Blackboard for important announcements, assignments and to access the midterm and final exam.
- Weather related announcements for class will be posted on the Blackboard page and communicated through Blackboard as well as by the Mason administration.
- Be an active participant- listen, ask questions, and share ideas. Active participation that will help to make this class more valuable. Sleeping in class is not a form of participation and students will be asked to leave.

- Please create a safe environment for people to openly communicate.
- Respect that each person is entitled to their own belief system.
- Complete all assignments on time. All written assignments are due at the beginning of class. Work must be submitted through Blackboard or turned in at the start of class as a hard copy. Late assignments will be accepted with .5 points deducted for each day the assignment is late. If a student misses class on a day when an assignment is due please note that the assignment MUST be received by the Instructor through Blackboard prior to the start of class or late points will be deducted. No exceptions will be made to this policy as all assignments will be provided at least 2 weeks prior to their due date.
- Type, spell check and proofread all papers. All papers must be typed with a font size of 12 points and a margin of 1 inch. All work must be double-spaced. Papers that are not in this format will receive a deduction in points. Grading rubrics for each assignment will be posted on Blackboard.
- All work in this class must be your own. Use appropriate citation in work that is referenced.
- Students may bring food and drink items to class, but please take all personal trash at the end of the class and dispose of properly.
- Cell phones must be muted or turned off during class. Please do not answer any calls in class or send/read any text messages. Video recording or taking pictures of any lecture is only allowed with the approval of the Instructor. Audio recording of lectures is allowed.
- Due to feedback from previous classes laptops should not be used in this class. Students have used laptops in the past for checking emails, surfing the internet and working on other work while class was in session and this is very disruptive to others. The nature of this class is not conducive to using laptops because the class consists of small and large group discussions on a regular basis. If a student feels as though they need an exception made for them to succeed in the class then they should speak to the instructor personally.
- To facilitate positive class discussions the class will develop and agree on a set of “ground rules” for the discussions that will occur throughout the semester. These “ground rules” will be added to the Blackboard page once they have been finalized and will be utilized for all class discussions.

EVALUATION

Requirements	Points
#1 Midterm- Multiple choice (60 question) exam taken on Blackboard	60
#2 Final Exam - Multiple choice (60 question) exam taken on Blackboard	60
Assignments (2 total at up to 10 points each)	20
In class reflections and attendance (10 at up to 2 points each)	20

Final class reflection (includes 2 parts at up to 10 points each)	20
TOTAL	180

Assignments: There will be 2 written assignments due in the course. The assignments include responding to a documentary (viewed outside of class) and informally interviewing 2-3 people and analyzing their responses. Details and grading rubrics for each assignment will be provided on Blackboard at least 2 weeks before the assignment deadline.

In class reflection and attendance: This class will include regular class discussions and interactive learning activities. Student participation and attendance is critical and expected. Throughout the course there will be at least 10 opportunities for written reflection on each class. These reflections may occur in the middle of the class or at the end of class. Grading includes 2 points possible for each class attended. Students who arrive more than 30 minutes late or leave more than an hour early are only eligible for a maximum of 1 point per class.

Final class reflection: The final class reflection is a two part activity. Part one will be completed at the start of the semester. Each student will be provided with a set of questions about their views related to human sexuality. The answers will be sealed in an envelope. This document will then be collected by the instructor and redistributed to students near the end of the course. Part two for the final class reflection will be a 2-3 page paper reflecting on lessons learned in the class and how the class has made a personal impact by citing specific examples from class discussions and content.

Optional Bonus Points: Students may each receive up to 5 additional points for submitting a 5-7 page paper on an approved book on a topic related to the course. A list of pre-approved books will be listed on Blackboard. The 5-7 page paper must be a scholarly and personal review of the book and address the following:

- What are the strengths of the book?
- What are the lessons learned from the book?
- Why should someone read this book?
- What would improve the book?
