Course Description

This course focuses on the structure and variations of international schools and human growth and development of their students. This includes the examination of international education, its mission and philosophies; comparative models of international education; the relationship between models of international education and patterns of student development; and parameters of effective instruction.

Nature of Course

This course is a seminar. This means that our work together will primarily be through dialogue with each other. Instead of utilizing lectures, each class will depend on the ideas that we collectively develop as we engage in ongoing discussion about international education and child development. Your own experiences as teachers, readers, writers, and learners, along with the course readings, will be an important part of our developing collective understandings.

It is vitally important for each student to complete readings on a weekly basis. Typically, a course meets once weekly for approximately 2.5 hours. For each of the 15 modules, you should spend this amount of time on the website in addition to your weekly readings and work. Successful students in an online learning environment are proactive, self-regulated, and manage their time well.

Expectations for participation

This online course is not self-paced. You will be expected to complete one module every week. Completing a module involves reading, participating in discussions with the whole class, and completing any accompanying assignments associated with that module. You are asked to engage deeply with the subject matter, to take risks in your thinking, and to listen to and learn from your classmates.

Learner Outcomes

This course is designed to enable students to:

1. To become familiar with the role and purpose of international schools, as well understanding contemporary issues in the international school community.
2. To become familiar with international school student characteristics - including the stage theories of development, age-level characteristics and student variability.
3. To identify and analyze issues related to education in a pluralistic and multicultural setting and society.
4. To become familiar with principles in educational psychology that affect learning.
5. To understand the parameters of effective instruction - including behavioral learning theories, cognitive learning theory, information processing theory, as well as understanding motivation and humanistic approaches to education.
6. To become familiar with the following aspects of child abuse: definition, historical evolution, different forms, underlying factors, legal statutes, assessments, interventions.

Standards: The following standards will be addressed in this course:

ACEI Standards: Candidates for certification, licensure and/or degree in the FAST TRAIN program are expected to demonstrate their acquisition and ability to apply the following ACEI Standards at acceptable or target levels:

1.0 Development, Learning and Motivation – candidates know, understand and use the major concepts, principles, theories and research related to development of children and young adolescents to construct learning opportunities that support individual students' development, acquisition of knowledge and motivation.

3.2 Adaptation to Diverse Learners – candidates understand how elementary students differ in their development and approaches to learning, and create instructional opportunities that are adapted to diverse students.

4.0 Assessment for instruction – candidates know, understand and use formal and informal assessment strategies to plan, evaluate and strengthen instruction that will promote continuous intellectual, social, emotional, and physical development of each elementary student.

5.1 Professional growth, reflection and evaluation – candidates are aware of and reflect on their practice in light of research on teaching, professional ethics and resources available for professional learning; they continually evaluate the effects of their professional decisions and actions on students, families and other professionals in the learning community and actively seek out opportunities to grow professionally.

5.2 Collaboration with families, colleagues, and community agencies – candidates know the importance of establishing and maintaining a positive collaborative relationship with families, school colleagues, and agencies in the larger community to promote the intellectual, social, emotional and physical growth and well-being of children.

Relationship to Program Goals and Professional Organization

EDUC 511 is the introductory course in FAST TRAIN, a program that prepares elementary and ESOL teachers for international schools. FAST TRAIN applies the goals of GMU elementary and ESOL education curriculum to an international context. EDUC 511 focuses upon the program goals that address educational foundations, especially in human growth and development and psychology. In addition, EDUC 511 primarily addresses the following Standards from the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC) and the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE). EDUC 511 also addresses the following Core Values from the College of Education and Human Development. Visit the appropriate links for complete descriptions and examples of each standard and/or value.

Professional Dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education & Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles. [See <http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/>]

Netiquette

As we will be working together in an online environment, netiquette will be significantly important in terms of creating a community of thinkers and learners. Netiquette is a way of defining professionalism through network communication; it is a way to foster a safe on-line learning environment. All opinions and experiences, no matter how different or controversial they may be perceived, must be respected in the tolerant spirit of academic discourse. You are encouraged to comment, question, or critique an idea but you are not to attack an individual. For our class, here are the netiquette guidelines for working and communicating online:

- Do not use offensive language.
- Never make fun of someone's ability to read or write.
- Keep an "open-mind" and be willing to express even your minority opinion.
- Think before you push the "Send" button.
- Do not hesitate to ask for feedback.
- When in doubt, always check with your instructor for clarification
- Popular emoticons such as ☺ or / can be helpful to convey your tone but do not overdo or overuse them.

Grading Scale for FAST TRAIN

- A+ = 100
- A = 94-99
- A- = 90-93
- B+ = 85-89
- B = 80-84 (no B- grades)
- C = 70-79 – does not meet licensure requirements or Level I award recommendation
- F = Does not meet requirements of the Graduate School of Education

Courses below a B are ineligible for licensure or recommendation for Level I IB Award – these must be repeated.

Students must maintain a 3.0 average and a grade of B or higher for licensure and master's degree. All course assignments and field experience activities must be satisfactorily completed before the final grade is awarded.

Field Work Assessment

Each student is required to complete 20 hours of fieldwork for this course. The fieldwork will be performed in conjunction with the Project Based Assessment for the course, the Child Study. The fieldwork will be marked as:

Satisfactory: completion of all assignments with high quality in a timely and efficient manner.

Unsatisfactory: incomplete and/or low quality of assignments submitted or work submitted more than one week late from due date.

NOTE: Failure to submit documentation of successful completion of your field work in a timely manner will make you ineligible to register for coursework or be recommended for licensure.

Incomplete (IN)

This grade may be given to students who are in good standing, but who may be unable to complete scheduled course work for a cause beyond reasonable control. The student must then complete all the requirements by the end of the ninth week of the next semester, not including summer term, and the instructor must turn in the final grade by the end of the 10th week. Unless an explicit written extension is filed with the Registrar's Office by the faculty deadline, the grade of IN is changed by the registrar to an F (Mason catalog). Faculty may grant an incomplete with a contract developed by the student with a reasonable time to complete the course at the discretion of the faculty member. The faculty member does not need to allow up to the following semester for the student to complete the course. A copy of the contract will be kept on file in the FAST TRAIN office.

GMU E-mail & Web Policy

Mason uses electronic mail (www.gmu.edu/email) to provide official information to students. Examples include notices from the library, notices about academic standing, financial aid information, class materials, assignments, questions, and instructor feedback. Students are responsible for the content of university communication sent to their Mason e-mail account and are required to activate that account and check it regularly (Mason catalog).

All communication sent for this course will be sent to your Mason email account. I will respond to emails as soon as I can, but always within 24 hours.

Course Withdrawal with Dean Approval

For graduate and non-degree students, withdrawal after the last day for dropping a course requires approval by the student's academic dean, and is permitted only for nonacademic reasons that prevent course completion (Mason catalog). Students must contact an academic advisor in FAST TRAIN to withdraw after the deadline. There is no guarantee that such withdrawals will be permitted.

Online Participation/Attendance Policy

Students are expected to participate in all online discussions. Not participating in an online discussion module will be reflected with a zero for the week and as an absence. Students with more two or more absences will not receive credit for the course.

Performance Based Assessment (PBA)

All courses in FAST TRAIN will have a required Performance Based Assessment (PBA). The required PBA for this course is the Child Study. This assignment must be posted to Task Stream, where it will be reviewed and scored.

TaskStream

Every student registered for any FAST TRAIN course with a required performance-based assessment (will be designated as such in the syllabus) is required to submit this assessment (The CHILD STUDY) to TaskStream (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a one-time course or part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of your performance-based assessment will also be provided using TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless this grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

Late Work/Submissions

At the graduate level all work is expected to be of high quality and submitted on the dates due. Work submitted late will be reduced one letter grade for every day of delay. Because we live in uncertain times, if you have any extraordinary circumstances (think flood, earthquake, evacuation) that prevent you from submitting your work in a timely manner, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor as soon as possible after the circumstances occur and make arrangements to complete your work. It is up to the discretion of the instructor to approve the late/makeup work.

Course requirements

All assignments should be turned in on the due date indicated in the schedule below via Blackboard except for the final assignment, the Project Based Assessment (PBA), and the fieldwork materials. The PBA and fieldwork documentation should be uploaded into Task Stream. The submission deadline for assignments is 11:59 pm EST of the due date indicated for each assignment. All projects must be typed, in a legible 12-point font, with one-inch margins, and double-spaced. All writing assignments should be submitted as Word documents, or a word processor based format. Writing quality (including mechanics, organization, and content) is figured into the overall points for each writing assignment, so please proofread carefully. Late papers and projects will not be accepted without penalty, except for in extraordinary circumstances. I am happy to clarify and lend assistance on projects and assignments, but please contact me within a reasonable timeframe.

1. Child Abuse, Neglect and Intervention (S/U)

This on-line training module will provide an overview on child abuse and neglect. Students will find the tutorial at the following web site:

http://www.dss.virginia.gov/family/cps/mandated_reporters/cws5691/requirements.html

The purpose of the training is to become familiar with the multiple aspects of child abuse, including: the definition and historical evolution of child abuse, different forms, underlying factors, legal statutes, assessments, and interventions. Because teachers will work with helping professionals from different disciplines, this course will also provide a multidisciplinary perspective to child abuse and neglect.

This module is a licensure requirement, it must be completed prior to applying for licensure and the printed certificate attached to your application for Virginia licensure.

Plan to spend about two hours for the completion of the training session. Once you have completed the module you will be able to print a certificate that verifies your completion of the training. This certificate should be kept by the student for licensure purposes. Upon completion of your training, upload a copy of the certificate onto Blackboard to receive credit for completing the training module.

2. Discussion board participation (15%)

Each week in our class we will have an online group discussion of the readings that are assigned for the module. You are expected to participate in this discussion in a substantive way (by both responding directly to the prompt and by responding to others' comments). Your participation in discussion board conversations is 15% of your final grade.

*Please note, as this is an online course, all our discussion will be in the form of the electronic discussion board. It is not acceptable to wait until the end of the week to post your comments as you will not be able to engage fully in the discussion, and others will not have an opportunity to engage with your thoughts and comments. Each module will begin on a Tuesday and run through the following Monday. You must start posting for each module by Friday at noon (EST) so that the class will have Friday through Monday to engage in conversation.

Students will be expected to respond to each of the discussion questions that the instructor posts.

Additionally, students should respond to at least three posts from other classmates.

Discussion Board is particularly important in a class such as this as it provides us with a forum for discussion of the topics we will be exploring and an open space to work through our own thoughts and ideas. Some of the richest and most robust discussions I have ever heard (seen) have taken place on a discussion board, and it is my hope that you will actively engage your colleagues in this medium. To provide a bit of a framework for participating in Discussion Board, please see the general “criteria for Blackboard Discussions” below.

Important Note: Discussion board for each module will be “open” only during the week that the module is active. You will always be able to go back and read earlier responses, but you will only be able to physically post in that week’s discussion board during the week we are working on it.

Criteria for Blackboard Discussions

1. Responses to the initial questions that I post to start the discussion should be a minimum of one short paragraph and a maximum of two paragraphs.
2. Each module begins on a Tuesday. You should begin posting by Friday at noon (at the latest). This will give us time to engage in discussion over the remainder of the module.
3. Postings should be distributed during the discussion period (not concentrated all on one day or at the beginning and/or end of the period).
*Please note: it is acceptable to post your responses to my initial questions at the same time. However, your responses to your colleagues should be distributed throughout the course of the module and not done at one fall swoop.
4. Avoid postings that are limited to 'I agree' or 'great idea', etc. If you agree (or disagree) with a posting then say why you agree by supporting your statement with concepts from the readings or by bringing in a related example or experience.
*Please note: it is perfectly fine to send “agree” or “great idea” responses with a brief comment on why you agree (or perhaps disagree). These responses do not have to be a paragraph in length.
5. Every week you should respond to each of the discussion questions that I post. Additionally, you should respond to at least three posts from other classmates unless otherwise noted in the discussion board prompt.
6. Address the questions as much as possible (don't let the discussion stray).
7. It is a good idea to use quotes from the articles that support your postings. Include page numbers when you do quote.
8. Bring in related prior knowledge if/when you can (work experience, prior coursework, readings, etc.). This greatly adds to the richness of the conversation.

- Use proper etiquette (proper language, typing, etc.). Please avoid using “text” talk (such as “C U,” “B4,” “cuz,” etc.). It is a graduate level course, so it is important that, while the Discussion Board is meant to be an open and safe space for discussion and exchanges, we should aim to maintain appropriate adherence to grammar and style.

Evaluation of Discussion Board

At the end of each module, you will receive a score on your participation in the discussion board conversation. Below is the rubric that will be used to provide your scores.

Weekly Online Discussions Rubric
Criteria	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
Timely discussion contributions	Postings are well distributed throughout the module. (Posts span 5-6 time periods).	Postings are mostly distributed throughout the module. (Posts span 3-4 time periods).	Postings minimally distributed. (Responses are posted from two time periods).	Postings are not distributed throughout the week. (Responses are posted at one time).
Responsiveness to discussion and demonstration of knowledge and understanding gained from assigned reading	It is very clear that readings were understood and incorporated well into responses.	The readings were understood and incorporated into responses.	The postings demonstrate a questionable relationship to reading material.	It is not evident that readings were understood and/or not incorporated into discussion.
Adherence to on-line protocols	All on-line protocols followed	1 online protocol not adhered to in the module.	2-3 online protocols not adhered to in the module.	4 or more online protocols not adhered to in the module.
Points	9-10	8	6-7	5 or less

3. Activities (15%)

In addition to weekly discussions, there will be five module activities. Each activity is correlated to the module in which it is located and will require the student to put theory into action. The activities will account for 15% of your final grade. Each activity will have a separate rubric and will be available for you on Blackboard under the “rubrics” tab.

4. Quizzes (15%)

There will be three open book tests throughout the semester. The tests will consist of multiple choice and short answer questions. Students may use their texts to complete the quiz. The quizzes will account for 15% of your final grade.

5. Dispositions for a Career Educator (10%)

The College of Education and Human Development along with national and international organizations promote maintaining standards of professional competence. Students must meet GSE grading standards and course requirements as well as demonstrate professional performance in the areas required of professional educators: content knowledge, pedagogical skill, and professional dispositions.

This assignment requires you to consider the professional performance criteria for career educators and the IB Learner Profile. To do this, you will write a 4-5 page, double spaced, reflective essay identifying your professional strengths and areas for development with respect to the Dispositions of a Career Educator and the IB Learner Profile. The Dispositions Paper will account for 15% of your final grade.

IMPORTANT: This is not a paper of how you would teach, but an examination of what you believe your strengths or weaknesses are with respect to the Dispositions of a Career Educator and the IB Learner Profile. These strengths and weaknesses should be clarified and substantiated with sufficient evidence. Even if you have not taught before, you can use your prior experience to show your dispositions. For example, if you have worked in an office, you could tell me that you have “advanced your profession” (found under Commitment to the Profession) because you have taken outside courses to improve yourself in respect to your job.

The Dispositions for a Career Educator, IB Learner Profile, and rubric can be found on Blackboard.

6. Multimedia Project: Influences on Learning and Student Engagement (15%)

This assignment is designed to increase your knowledge about factors that influence students and their ability to engage in learning. The concept you choose should help you work more effectively with students and should be related to topics in the course. Examples of topics include: the importance of play in early childhood, Third Culture Kids (TCK's), gifted and talented students, the effects of divorce on children, inclusion in international schools, mobility/transition, cultural influences on teaching/learning, language/learning, learning disabled students... You must have your topic approved by the instructor, and only one student will be permitted per topic.

Working independently, students will utilize a multimedia tool (Prezi, iMovie, PowerPoint, etc.) to design a presentation on his or her selected topic. Presentations will be shared with the entire class online. The goal of the presentation is to teach your fellow classmates about this specific topic, and the presentation should be viewed as one that could be presented in a professional development session for teachers.

To gather your data, review several sources including the IBO website on special needs/issues. Two to three of your sources should come from traditional references such as referred journals or books. You may use the Internet as a source of information, but you will need to evaluate the quality of the information you find and reference it properly. As you research the concept you may find that it is too broad in nature, and consequently you may have to narrow or modify your topic as you conduct your search and develop your presentation.

Read and review what you have found, then select a minimum of five sources for your presentation of the key findings on the topic. Please note the presentation is not necessarily a summary of the topic, rather it should identify information that will be helpful to you as a teacher. In addition, supply at least five on-line resources that your colleagues can draw upon to find further resources and information about your topic. The presentation will count for 15% of your final grade, and the rubric can be located on Blackboard.

7. Classroom Management Portfolio (10%)

The purpose of this assignment is to help you reflect on the relationship between your philosophy of education and your style of management in your classroom (now or in the future). For this assignment, each student will write a brief review of their current practices that he or she uses (or intends to use) to manage the classroom environment that reflects his/her professional philosophy/dispositions toward teaching and learning. Each student will then create a portfolio of 4 potential strategies that will be considered for use in his or her own classroom and 2 organizational strategies. To complete this, students are encouraged to draw from Ormrod, but three additional sources must be utilized. Each strategy needs to be defined and explained, and an example of how the strategy could be situated in classroom practice needs to be provided.

Your paper should range from 6-8 double spaced pages. The Classroom Management Portfolio will count for 15% of your final grade, and the rubric can be found on Blackboard.

8. Child/Adolescent Study *Performance Based Assessment (20%)

To be uploaded on Task Stream

All FAST TRAIN licensure courses have a required Performance Based Assessment (PBA). The required PBA for this course is the Child/Adolescent Study Assignment. PBAs must be uploaded on to Task Stream.

You will conduct a Child/Adolescent Study using a variety of activities, small/whole group lessons, teacher/parent/student interviews, etc., and write paper that describes the key findings. It is important that you read the guidelines NOW so that you know what you will be writing about for this assignment.

The purpose of the study is to begin to learn about international children in a holistic sense. It is important to note that these activities are introductory in nature - they cannot explain characteristics of large groups of students. It is important to begin planning for your Child/Adolescent Study very early in your Field Experience in order to complete sufficient activities and observations with your target student. The Child/Adolescent Study will count for 25% of your final grade.

The Child Study guidelines document, which contains detailed directions, and the Child Study rubric can be found on Blackboard. The PBA guidelines and rubric are also included at the end of this syllabus.

9. Field Experience and Field Experience Reflection (S/U)

To be uploaded on Task Stream

The field experience is a required component of the teacher preparation program at George Mason University. All students will complete a minimum of 20 hours in field experience for this course. Documentation of your field experience is required as well as a signed statement from your field experience teacher(s) or supervisor(s). The Fieldwork documents are located on Blackboard.

In addition to the fieldwork log, each student will write a 2-3 page reflection on the fieldwork experience. The reflection should explain what you have learned from the fieldwork experience and your overall reflections on the process.

Guidelines for Child/Adolescent Study

Overview:

The case study is a rich portrait of the development of a student that you observed in the school context. It is based on your written observations, interactions with the child and includes general descriptive information about family, community, and cultural context. The purpose is to help you learn how to observe children and collect data systematically so that you gain insight into development. These skills will enable you to assess students and plan developmentally and culturally appropriate learning experiences for them.

The purpose of the child study is to systematically collect evidence about an international student. Observations of children are foundational to assessment and in your teaching may be used to adjust curriculum and plan learning opportunities to meet student's individual needs. Observations also help parents understand different levels of mastery, engagement, and behavior.

Teachers should have a good sense of the progression of capabilities for each area of development to be observed. Knowing what comes before or after developmentally allows the teacher to generally know what to expect. For individual children, establishing a baseline of observations allow us to see how children grow over time.

All data collected should have a purpose in mind. For example, asking yourself, "what do I hope to learn from my observations?" or "how will I use the information I have learned?" help to establish purpose. Data can be collected through a variety of means: lesson plans, narratives, time/event sampling, anecdotal records, review of academic records, teacher or parent interviews, checklists, observations, or student work products. It is not necessary to use all of these means to collect data during your Child Study however it is very important to use a variety of means, over time, to collect your evidence.

Be sure that you do not make a child feel isolated or uncomfortable during this process. Work with a small group of children during the Child/Adolescent Study but collect data/evidence only on your target child. Your classroom teacher/supervisor should be able to help you arrange a non-intrusive manner in which to complete your work.

If you are not currently a teacher, be sure to get permission from teachers or parents for activities in which you are an active participant and collecting data. Most schools will allow you to collect general information about a child as a normal part of your field experience. In some schools, you will need specific permission both from a supervisor, your teacher and/or parents, be sure to obtain any needed permissions before you begin. If you are a practicing professional follow the guidelines in your school policies.

All reports must use pseudonyms (fictitious names) to protect the confidentiality of the school, parent, child and teacher. At no point should anyone be able to identify the student or school. Your final report will be given directly to your instructor; no copies should be distributed or disseminated. Remember you are learning how to observe and make sense of those observations – you need to be cautious in your interpretations and discuss your findings with your teacher for clarification.

Each case study will include the following:

1. Physical description of the child/student
2. Summary of the child's socio-cultural context (family, school, community, language,
3. Socio-economic status, ethnicity)
4. Summary of the child's capability in each of the developmental areas (physical, cognitive,
5. Linguistic, social, emotional, moral) supported by specific examples from your observations/teaching/interviews/interactions with the child
6. Summary of the elements of the learner profile (IB) found in the environment and exhibited by the student.
7. Description of the teaching implications for the child/student
8. Reflection of what you've learned by doing a child study describing your experience.

Your observations, lessons taught, interviews and other field notes constitute the data for your case study. Your knowledge of course material (e.g. child/adolescent development theory and research, the influence of family, community, culture and school on development) should be woven throughout to provide research/theoretical support for your analysis.

Support your analysis and conclusions with specific examples from your observations, field notes, lessons, pupil products, parent or teacher interviews. Do not send all of your evidence just those samples that support the statements in your analysis. Do not rely on a single source of data (e.g. observational) to support your analysis - you must demonstrate the use of multiple methods to collect your evidence.

The paper should be written in narrative form, single-sided, double-spaced, and between 12 to 15 pages in length. Use APA format. Attach samples of your ethnographic records and anecdotal observations as an appendix (these samples should be the ones you draw upon in your paper as evidence of your analysis).

Each FAST TRAIN student is required to complete a minimum of 20 hours of fieldwork. Using your fieldwork time can also provide your evidence for your Child Study report. If you cannot use your fieldwork site to complete your Child Study then you will need to arrange other opportunities to complete your Child Study.
