COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A. Prerequisites/Corequisites

Admission to Elementary Education graduate program; must be taken in programmatic sequence.

B. University Catalog Course Description

Provides research-based introduction to literacy teaching and learning for younger children. Emphasizes language development; reading and writing processes; emergent literacy; culture, families, and literacy; and literacy integration in the curriculum.

LEARNER OUTCOMES:

1. Students will demonstrate an understanding of reading as a cognitive, sociocultural, psychological, and linguistic process.
2. Students will reflect on their own literacy learning histories and connect these to current theories of reading instruction.
3. Students will observe and assess the reading development and needs of elementary learners.
4. Students will plan literacy lessons that demonstrate an understanding of connections between phonemic awareness, word recognition, fluency and comprehension strategies and proficient reading.
5. Students will plan literacy lessons that promote creative and critical thinking.
6. Students will plan lessons that facilitate reading fluency, reading comprehension and vocabulary development across content areas.
7. Students will plan lessons using strategies in literal, interpretive, critical, and evaluative comprehension.
8. Students will survey technological tools, print materials, and other resources for teaching reading.
9. Students will describe the literacy needs of diverse learners, including English Language Learners and students with other special needs, and they will adapt lesson plans to meet these needs.
10. Students will explore and explain the role of families, communities, and schools in children's literacy learning.
11. Students will understand the importance of promoting independent reading and reading reflectively by selecting quality literature, including fiction and non-fiction, at appropriate reading levels.
12. Students will demonstrate the ability to assess individual and group reading needs in a classroom situation and organize classroom instruction to facilitate the literacy development of all learners.

RELATIONSHIP TO PROGRAM GOALS AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

This course addresses priorities in the GSE master plan including literacy, technology, and diversity. It is designed as an integral component of the new Elementary Program for teachers of grades PK-6, and meets new state and national guidelines and standards including Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support

Consortium (INTASC); International Society for Technology in Education, (ISTE); and International Reading Association (IRA) Standards for Literacy Professionals and Paraprofessionals. This course builds closely upon themes taught in the foundations courses and integrates ideas from other elementary methods courses.

|-------------|-------------|---------------|
| A = 94-100% | A- = 90-93% | B+ = 88-89% |
| B = 80-87% | C = 77-79% | F = below 70% |

Participation

Students are expected to come to all classes prepared to participate in all aspects of classroom work. This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers. You are expected to contribute to class discussions and activities and to listen as peers do the same. Being prepared for class includes having completed all assigned readings and tasks for class. It is a College of Education expectation that you will not use cell phones or computers during class time for the purposes of texting, social media, or phone calls.

Evaluation

Participation will be evaluated based on readiness and contribution. (20%)

Children's Literature Study

DUE: TUESDAY, 6/10

Students will prepare a resource file of children's literature including annotations and extension activities. At least fifteen book titles are to be referenced. Title, author, date of publication, the genre, annotations (brief summary of the text with evaluative commentary), discussion questions, and comprehension strategy think alouds are to be included for each text. Online references will be explored and included. To document the children's books you read, create and maintain an electronic log using a web 2.0 tool. The following link lists excellent tools to choose from:

<http://blog.calendars.com/2010/04/3-sites-to-organize-your-book-collection/>

Or you can choose your own e.g., evernote.

You will be responsible for setting up the web 2.0 tool so that everyone has access to it (and your classmates and the instructor can view it when completed). (20%)

Evaluation

Children's literature study will be evaluated for completion, accuracy, and creativity of discussion questions/strategy instruction as well as coherence of writing and mechanics.

Interactive Read Aloud Lesson

DUE: TUESDAY, 6/17

Lesson Plan: Topic – Interactive Read Aloud. Write a plan for a whole group interactive read aloud lesson.

Include some type of response to the text. This lesson is to be implemented in a kindergarten or first grade class at Westlawn. (20%)

Evaluation

Lesson plans will be evaluated based on adherence to the Elementary program lesson plan format; consistency with instructional methods taught in the program; appropriate rationale provided; specification of objectives, as related to state and national standards; appropriate match between assessment of learning and learning objectives; coherence of writing and mechanics.

Book Club

DUE: THURSDAY, 6/19

Students will participate in a book club to discuss a course text of their choice. This assignment will require meetings outside of class. (20%)

Evaluation

Book club summaries will be evaluated for depth of reflection, inclusion of new understanding about the text/course content, the book club process and the reader's self.

Final Exam - Vision Statement

DUE: TUESDAY, 6/3 and TUESDAY, 6/24

Students will write two versions of a vision statement that will articulate their plan for instruction and the impact they hope to have on their students. Paper will include reflections on observations and references. (20%)

Evaluation

Papers will be evaluated for accuracy in explaining literacy practices and theories; appropriate citation of research; ability to connect theories to field experience; ability to apply knowledge gained in readings and in class; coherence of writing and mechanics.

TASKSTREAM REQUIREMENTS

Every student registered for any Elementary Education course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, Reading, Writing, Spelling Analysis completed in EDCI 556, to TaskStream (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a onetime course or part of an undergraduate minor.) Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

GMU POLICIES AND RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

- a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/>].
