Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

- Assignments and/or Examinations

- 1) Creating a Culture of Literacy (15%) – 18 points – Blackboard

The purpose of this assignment is to create a representation of what you think is critical for creating a literacy rich and friendly environment in which reading and writing is authentically supported for all learners. Each student will collect and catalog ideas, strategies, and activities from the readings, discussions, your colleagues' classrooms, and your field experience that you believe might enhance your own practice and classroom environment. You may choose to collect and catalog ideas, strategies, and activities in whatever format makes sense for you—photo gallery, Pinterest, Evernote, etc.

For this assignment, each student will curate and reflect upon the resources they have collected based upon the following questions:

- 1) In what ways will you work to develop a culture of literacy? In other words, what classroom routines and practices will you establish to promote and sustain literacy development?
- 2) How will you ideally set up a literacy space in your classroom? Define the space physically, describe the resources that would be available in the space, and explain how you envision the space being used.

Students will have a choice in their presentation format for this assignment, but the aforementioned questions must be addressed, the presentation must be organized/curated thoughtfully, and your reasoning must be supported by readings from the course.

Presentation options include:

- 4-6 page paper with embedded images or weblinks to examples
- 10-12 slide narrated presentation format, such as a PowerPoint, Screencast (screencastomatic.com), or Glogster (edu.glogster.com)
- curated wiki, such as Bb wiki or Padlet (padlet.com)

Students should think of their teacher colleagues as the audience for the curated information and resources. Please be selective about what you share about and consider what might be the most useful practices and routines for your colleagues to know and why. Less is more.

Follow APA (6th edition) writing and citation guidelines in order to correctly cite your sources. Please use the APA website (<http://www.apastyle.org/>) or the OWL at Purdue (<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>) as both are excellent resources.

Scoring rubrics can be found in the corresponding Assignment folder in the Assignments tab on Blackboard.

2) Book Club & Discussion Facilitation (20%) – 24 points – Blackboard

Each student will select a current text in the field of literacy education and participate in a book club to discuss the ideas put forth by the authors. A list of contemporary and seminal literature has been suggested according to a focus topic, but your group may request to read another book as well. Texts must be pre-approved in by the instructor.

The focus topics for the suggested books are:

- Vocabulary- Beck, McKeown & Kucan (2013)
- Comprehension- Duffy (2014)
- Writing- Mora-Flores (2009)

- Engagement & Identity- Toohey (2000)

Each book club will participate in meetings, collaborate on a book review, and lead small group online discussions for the week their book club is scheduled to present. The book club may choose to meet online (e.g. Skype, Google Hangouts, Bb Collaborate Ultra) or offline. These meetings should address questions, confusions, and critical analysis of the texts. These meetings should lead to the creation of a book review AND a plan to lead small group online discussion.

The purpose of the book review is to critically examine how the texts address key concepts and ideas related to your focus topic address IN ADDITION to our larger course focus on the relationship between language and literacy, and how it affects CLD students. The book review should be 1,000-1,200 words. The book reviews will be posted to Blackboard so that all participants in the class will have the opportunity to get a quick glimpse of the text and prepare for the online discussion. Your book club may choose to post the book reviews as a downloadable document (e.g. Word document, PDF) or as a wiki. Please let the instructor know what format you prefer.

Remember that these book reviews are meant to put forth an argument about the book. Please use the following resources to support your thinking and writing:

- <http://writingcenter.unc.edu/handouts/book-reviews/>
- <https://academicskills.anu.edu.au/resources/handouts/writing-critical-book-review>

Each book club should also plan to lead/co-lead a small group online discussion by preparing an 8-12 page selection of the text for colleagues to read beforehand and 1-2 questions to guide discussion. It is suggested that these discussions are narrowly focused and will likely draw upon unanswered or lingering questions from book club meetings. Each book club member will moderate the discussion by:

- 1) asking questions
- 2) providing more information
- 3) pushing thinking when needed
- 4) making sure discussion stays on topic and grounded in the text.

Follow APA (6th edition) writing and citation guidelines in order to correctly cite your sources. Please use the APA website (<http://www.apastyle.org/>) or the OWL at Purdue (<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>) as both are excellent resources.

Only one group member needs to submit the book review for the book club. Scoring rubrics can be found in the corresponding Assignment folder in the Assignments tab on Blackboard.

3) Field Experience Documentation (REQUIRED for licensure/endorsement) – Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory – Tk20

The field experience is a required component of the teacher preparation program at George Mason University. All students will complete a minimum of 20 hours in field experience for this course. Documentation of your field experience is required as well as a signed statement from your field experience teacher(s) or supervisor(s). The Fieldwork documents are located on Blackboard in the Assessments tab.

Due to the nature of this intensive course, the ideal schedule for your field experience for this course is to visit your site approximately once every 1.5 weeks. There will be activities that align with your readings that should be done in a timely manner to support your completion of your PBA.

In-service teachers: Field experience can often be conducted in your own classroom if you have access to the population of students required for the PBAs. Please consult your instructor if you have questions about the viability of your classroom for fieldwork in this class. You must register for your school as your field experience site in the online Field Experience Request form available here: <https://cehd.gmu.edu/endorse/ferf> You will check the box indicating that: “I will arrange my own field experiences (observations and/or case studies) because I am a full-time contracted school system employee and will complete field experience at my workplace.” The deadline to submit your field experience placement is September 15 (Fall) or February 15 (Spring). Failure to do so will result in an unsatisfactory grade for your fieldwork assignment. If you are taking this course as part of a cohort program, please indicate “TCLDEL Cohort” on your request form FIRST, then select your program and placement location. HINT: Cohort courses have section numbers beginning with “6F” (e.g. EDUC 511.6F1).

The fieldwork will be performed in conjunction with the Project Based Assessment for the course: the Student Literacy Study. The fieldwork will be marked as:

Satisfactory: completion of all assignments with high quality in a timely and efficient manner.

Unsatisfactory: incomplete and/or low quality of assignments submitted or work submitted than one week late from due date.

NOTE: Failure to submit documentation of successful completion of your field experience in a timely manner will make you ineligible to register for coursework, be recommended for licensure, or receive a grade for this course.

Field Experience Documentation is required to be submitted through the Tk20 link in the Assessments tab in Blackboard.

4) Student Literacy Study (SLS) – Performance Based Assessment (PBA) (30%) – 36 points – Tk20

The Student Literacy Study (SLS) is the PBA for this course. The purpose of the study is to begin to learn about literacy learners in a holistic sense; it provides the student with an opportunity to learn about one student, the community in which he/she lives, and how the student views him/herself as a literacy learner. Students will conduct interviews and observations, perform reading inventories, and engage the learner in developmentally appropriate literacy activities. It is important to note that these activities are introductory in nature. Each student will be required to select a child or adolescent with which to work for this project.

It is expected that your 20 hours of fieldwork will be performed in conjunction with the SLS. If you cannot use your fieldwork site to complete your SLS then you will need to arrange other opportunities to complete this assessment.

It is important to begin planning for your SLS very early in your Field Experience in order to complete sufficient activities and observations with your target student. The SLS and the SLS Portfolio will count for a total of 35% of your final grade.

A sample SLS paper is available in the Student Literacy Study folder in the Assessments tab. The paper should be written in narrative form, double-spaced, and between 12 to 15 pages in length. If you submit a paper longer than 15 pages, extra pages will not be read. Please follow APA (6th edition) writing and citation guidelines in order to correctly cite your sources. Further information on the project and the rubric can be found at the end of this syllabus.

The SLS is required to be submitted through the Tk20 link in the Assessments tab in the SLS folder.

- Other Requirements

Participation (35%) – 42 points – Blackboard

Class participation is vitally important in a course such as this. Each class session we will have readings to discuss, ideas to unpack, and activities to do. You are expected to participate in the class discussions and activities in a substantive way, as this not only enriches the class, but also helps ensure that you will get the most out of the sessions.

Students are expected to participate in activities and discussions. Not participating will be reflected with a zero for the week and as an absence. Students with two or more absences will not receive credit for the course.

**The professor reserves the right to modify or alter assignments, tasks, due dates, and other requirements during the duration of the course to maximize the learning experience.****

a. Weekly activities and discussion

Activities

In addition to the readings, you may be asked to watch a video, collect information, or explore other online resources prior to class. Guiding question(s) or tasks related to the readings and these resources will be posted to establish a purpose for reading. These guiding questions or activities will be directly related to discussion for the session. Activities may require you to respond to a specific question, create a representation of ideas from the reading (e.g. concept map, picture), or analyze a piece of text or student work based on your understandings of the readings and other resources.

Discussion Guidelines

Different discussion structures will be organized to maximize participation and community building. This includes small groups and whole group discussion on the Blackboard Discussion Board and in Collaborate Ultra. You will be responsible for participating and facilitating discussion according to the expectations and norms decided upon on the first day of the course.

For Discussion Board:

- Postings should be evenly distributed during the discussion period (not concentrated all on one day or at the beginning and/or end of the period).
- Postings should be a minimum of one short paragraph to a maximum of two paragraphs.
- Avoid postings that are limited to 'I agree' or 'great idea', etc. If you agree (or disagree) with a posting then say why you agree by supporting your statement with concepts from the readings or by bringing in a related example or experience.
- Address the guiding questions as much as possible (don't let the discussion stray).
- Be mindful that discussion comments are evidence of thinking in progress.
- Ask questions when you want clarification or have a wonder about content or others' experiences.
- Paraphrase and cite from the texts that support your postings. Include page numbers when you provide direct quotes.
- Build on others responses to create threads.
- Bring in related prior knowledge (work experience, prior coursework, readings, etc.) as appropriate.
- Use proper etiquette (appropriate language, typing, etc.).

You will be responsible for participating in discussion within designated small groups, but please do read other discussion threads when able.

b. Exit Slips

At the end of each session, you will complete an Exit Slip that details your current thinking on the questions and/or topics given our readings, activities, and discussion. The Exit Slip entry is to help you process your learning and to provide me insight into your developing understanding and perspectives; your entry will also help me to adjust instruction and/or provide direct support for our next session or ongoing assignments. These entries will only be read by the instructor. It is expected that your response is brief, but connected to your discussion responses, the readings and activities in relationship to your evolving/changing thinking on the relationships between language, literacy and culture, and perspectives on how to provide opportunities for CLD students to learn.

There will be a grade assigned for all sessions. The following rubric will be used:

Discussions, Activities &amp; Exit Slip Rubric
Criteria	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
Timely contributions/ activities completed	Activities/assignments completed and actively contributes to classwork.	Activities/assignments completed and contributes to support classwork.	Activities/assignments partially completed and does not support classwork.	Activities/assignments not available.
Responsiveness to discussion and demonstration of knowledge and understanding gained from assigned reading	It is very clear that readings were understood and incorporated well into responses.	The readings were understood and incorporated into responses.	The postings demonstrate a questionable relationship to reading material.	It is not evident that readings were understood and/or not incorporated into discussion.
Adherence to expectations & norms	All expectations & norms followed	1 expectation & norm not adhered to in the session.	2-3 expectations & norms not adhered to in the session.	4 or more expectations & norms not adhered to in the session.

Points	3	2	1	0

c. Student Literacy Study Portfolio Entries

To scaffold your thinking and completion of your Performance Based Assessment (PBA), activities will be planned to connect our readings and resources to the interviews, inventories, observations, and interactions needed to complete the Student Literacy Study (described in depth on the next page). These activities will be organized through the submission of artifacts and preliminary analysis into a portfolio, which you will refine and revise for final submission in your PBA.

Two submissions of portfolio entries will be graded for completion. Each check of completion will be worth 3 points.

Entry	Focus/Purpose	Suggested artifacts to collect & activities
#1	Sociocultural context of language & literacy learning	Observation, interview (student/parent/teacher), running records, miscue analysis, informal reading inventories (diagnostic), bilingual book reading, checklists
#2	Phonemic Awareness, Word ID, Fluency, Vocabulary & Comprehension (as appropriate for grade and language development level)	Interview (student/parent/teacher), running records, miscue analysis, bilingual book reading, informal reading inventories, early literacy assessments, spelling assessment, vocabulary assessment, writing samples, guided reading levels & assessment results/Lexile scores, lesson plans, checklists

*Designated Performance Based Assessment

- Grading

At George Mason University course work is measured in terms of quantity and quality. A credit normally represents one hour per week of lecture or recitation or not fewer than two hours per week of laboratory work throughout a semester. The number of credits is a measure of quantity. The grade is a measure of quality. The university-wide system for grading graduate courses is as follows:

Grade	GRADING	Grade Points	Interpretation
A+	=100	4.00	Represents mastery of the subject through effort beyond basic requirements
A	94-99	4.00
A-	90-93	3.67
B+	85-89	3.33	Reflects an understanding of and the ability to apply theories and principles at a basic level
B	80-84	3.00
C*	70-79	2.00	Denotes an unacceptable level of understanding and application of the basic elements of the course
F*	<69	0.00

Note: “C” is not satisfactory for a licensure course; “F” does not meet requirements of the Graduate School of Education

APA format:

All written papers are expected to be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and in 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial). APA format is expected. If you do not have a 6th Edition APA manual, please use the APA website (<http://www.apastyle.org/>) or the OWL at Purdue as a resource (<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>).

*Please Note: The GMU Writing Center offers online support via email. They will provide feedback on your writing within one hour. Graduate and professional writing can be difficult; I encourage you to take advantage of this service.

http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/?page\_id=177

Late work policy:

At the graduate level all work is expected to be of high quality and submitted on the dates due. Work submitted late will be reduced one letter grade for every day of delay. Because we live in uncertain times, if you have any extraordinary circumstances (think flood, earthquake, evacuation) that prevent you from submitting your work in a timely manner, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor as soon as possible after the circumstances occur and make arrangements to complete your work. It is up to the discretion of the instructor to approve the late/makeup work.

Revise & Resubmit:

If a student submits an assignment that may indicate limited understanding or confusion about the content as indicated by scoring on the assignment rubric, the instructor may request for a student to revise and resubmit the assignment based on feedback. This is an opportunity for a student to clarify understanding of the content and demonstrate growth. In most cases, the original assignment and revision will be averaged for a new final grade. The instructor will communicate with the student to determine a reasonable timeframe within which to complete the revision.

Professional Dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Integrity of Work & Honor Code

TCLDEL students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code (<http://oai.gmu.edu/honor-code/>). The principle of academic integrity is taken very seriously and violations are treated as such.

Violations of the Honor Code include:

1. Copying a paper or part of a paper from another student (current or past);

2. Reusing work that you have already submitted for another class (unless express permission has been granted by your current professor before you submit the work);
3. Copying the words of an author from a textbook or any printed source (including the Internet) or closely paraphrasing without providing a citation to credit the author. For examples of what should be cited, please refer to:
<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/02/>
4. You may also not “reuse” fieldwork hours. Each placement must have 20 documented hours that are solely for each course that you are in; you may be at the same site, but the same hours may not be counted towards the same course.

Guidelines for Student Literacy Study

The Student Literacy Study is a robust profile of one focal student that you observed and worked with in a school context. The study is based on your written observations, interactions with the student, and literacy activities with which you engaged the student. The study should include general descriptive information about the student, a contextualization of the student's home, school and community, and an analysis of the student's relationship with literacy. The purpose of this assignment is to not only to observe your student, but also to collect data systematically so that you gain insight into his or her literacy skills, literacy development, and relationship to literacy.

Data for this project can be collected through a variety of means: lesson plans, narratives, sampling, anecdotal records, review of academic records, teacher or parent interviews, checklists, observations, directed activities, reading protocols, or other student work products. It is not necessary to use all of these means to collect data; however, it is very important to use a variety of means to collect your evidence.

If you are not currently a teacher, be sure to get permission from teachers or parents for activities in which you are an active participant and collecting data. Most schools will allow you to collect general information about a child as a normal part of your field experience. In some schools, you will need specific permission both from a supervisor, your teacher and/or parents, be sure to obtain any needed permissions before you begin. If you are a practicing professional follow the guidelines in your school policies.

All reports must use pseudonyms (fictitious names) to protect the confidentiality of the school, parent, student, and teacher. At no point should anyone be able to identify the student or school. Your final report will be given directly to your instructor; no copies should be distributed or disseminated.

Each case study will include the following:

1. Description on the focal student (age, language skills, school context)
2. Description of the sociocultural context (home, school, and community)
3. Description of the student's attitude and response to reading
4. Description of the student's reading profile
5. Recommendations for the student's literacy development
6. Reflection of what you've learned by doing a child study describing your experience

Support your analysis and conclusions with specific examples from your collected artifacts. Do not attach all of your evidence - just submit those samples that support the statements in your analysis. Do not rely on a single source of data (e.g. observations) to support your analysis - you must demonstrate the use of multiple methods to collect your evidence.

The reflection should address how the SLS changed/deepened your understanding of the relationship between language and literacy for CLD students. You may want to include what you would have wanted to improve on or learn more about and why. Refer to readings and theories to support your reasoning.

The paper should be written in narrative form, double-spaced, and between 12 to 15 pages in length. Use APA format. Attach relevant samples, field notes, or other artifacts as appendices (e.g. these samples should be the ones you draw upon in your paper as evidence of your analysis).
