Introduces the basic elements of soccer including dribbling, kicking, passing, trapping, tactics, and strategy.

Class Information

Students with injuries or pre-existing conditions that may affect performance must inform the instructor.

Course Overview

Students will describe and show successful use of the various techniques of passing, trapping, dribbling, and kicking, as well as strategy and techniques for different positions on the field. Each student will rotate through all the positions including goal play.

An initial motor skill evaluation of dribbling and trapping will be given the first day to determine the skill level of all students. Those students who are already skilled at these tasks will be used for demonstration and will be separated appropriately during small-sided and full field games.

Participation is extremely important to the completion of in-class activity. All students will be expected to attend all class sessions, actively participate on the field and in class discussions and complete any written assignments. Any assignments given must be turned in at the beginning of class on the specified date due or no credit will be given.

Course Delivery Method

This course is an activity-based course.

2. Pass a soccer ball at least ten yards to a partner with each foot.
3. Trap the ball with each foot after receiving a pass from a partner.
4. Trap the ball with the chest so the ball drops to the ground no farther than three yards from the feet.
5. Kick a ball with the instep for a distance of fifteen yards in the air with each foot.

- Assignments and Examinations

- Skill Assessment (15%)– This will be done while students play on the field.
- Project (5%)- Each student is going to be given a topic to prepare and run a session or exercise for the entire class.
- Written Final (10%)- Multiple choice & true/false questions on topics covered in class such as rules, strategies, player positions, and techniques.

- Other Requirements

Attendance -10 points will be given each day with a deduction of 1 point for each five-minutes that a student is late. Students must attend the entire class period and participate in the daily activities to receive full credit for the class. The first day of class will not count in the evaluation. The total possible points can be 140 to 150. Your attendance / participation score will be the number of points you gained each day divided by total points possible and then multiplied by 70%. If you attend, are on time each day, and participate as scheduled, you'll receive the full 10 points for that day.

Unexcused absences and late arrivals could significantly affect the grade. Absences are only excused with a doctor's note. Phone calls, texts, and emails do not excuse an absence. Doctor's notes must be presented immediately upon returning to class or scanned and emailed to the instructor.
