University Catalog Course Description

Provides supervised practice in a counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work with an emphasis on the counseling process.

Course Overview

This course provides supervised practice for a minimum of 200 hours (for school counseling students) and 300 hours (for community agency students) in a counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work. This is a weekly graduate class with an emphasis on the counseling process.

The practicum course is an arranged, supervised experience in counseling. The course aims to provide skills in working towards social justice, developing advanced multicultural counseling intervention skills, developing skills in leadership and advocacy to effectively design and implement community prevention programs, and developing ways to improve theoretical conceptualizations of applied interventions. Thus, the focus of the course will be on providing professional counseling within the parameters of the George Mason University Counseling and Development Program mission, e.g., multiculturalism, advocacy, leadership, and social justice.

During the semester, students will present, discuss, and conceptualize their counseling work, explore culturally specific interventions, explore applications of social justice to their counseling work, examine countertransference as it relates to the counseling process, and plan and develop required activities which include an evaluation of their practicum site. Students will be required to see at least two (2) clients for a minimum of four (4) sessions each during the semester. Clients should consist of individual, family, and group cases. Class seminars will consist of role-plays, case processing; and discussion of professional issues, personal reactions to clients, and program evaluation and development.

Because of the serious nature of this work, it is essential that students discuss their reactions and feelings. Such discussions, however, cannot take place outside the context of a supervised class or appropriate site circumstance. You may not discuss cases in other classes, with friends or relatives, or in social situations since it is essential to maintain confidentiality. Violations of this principle in any form will be treated as a serious ethical/legal infraction. It is also imperative that you discuss cases with your on-site supervisor. If you have questions or concerns that need immediate attention, please call, or email the instructor.

Course Materials

All practicum materials are located on Blackboard under the Counseling and Development Organization page. Click the Community Agency P&I link located on the left-hand side. You should print out copies of the Information for CA On-Site Supervisor, Supervision Agreement, Mid-Term Evaluation and Final Evaluation forms for your site supervisor, and any other relevant materials.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using a synchronous and asynchronous format via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on Blackboard on Sunday, August 23rd at 8:00am.

Under no circumstances may students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see:
https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#supported-browsers

To get a list of supported operation systems on different devices see:

- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students may need to use a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool if situated in an area with a lot of background noise.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.

- The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download: [Add or delete options, as desire.]
  - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
  - Windows Media Player: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>
  - Apple Quick Time Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download/

Expectations

- See the detailed Course Schedule for specific meeting and assignment due date information.
- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 3 times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.

Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content, or other course-related issues. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.
- Accommodations:
Online learners who require effective accommodations to ensure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Learner Outcomes

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

1. Gain opportunity for practicing competencies developed throughout the graduate training program;
2. Receive an orientation to organizational structure, protocol, relationships, and working conditions in community agency counseling settings;
3. Explore counseling strategies for individuals, groups, and families within a culturally diverse framework;
4. Effectively understand the nature of the changing role of the professional counselor that includes advocacy, leadership, multiculturalism, and social justice.
5. Formulate and identify a professional role.
6. Uphold high standards of professional ethics; gain experience involving ethical decision-making and practice related to counseling.

Professional Standards

Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs (CACREP) 2016

Upon completion of this course, students will have met the following professional standards:

EDCD 755 is a culminating course for master's degree students in the Counseling and Development Program. The experience is designed to enhance counseling skills and to provide students with site-based community agency counseling experiences. EDCE 755 fulfills the requirements of the following professional organizations:

- Commonwealth of Virginia Board of Counseling requirement for Supervised internship of 600 hours to include 240 hours of face-to-face direct client contact.
- Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) 2009 Standards that require counselor education programs include the study of helping relationships in a multicultural society;
- And CACREP-Section II. Professional Identity and CACREP-Section III. Professional Practice.
- American Counseling Association Code of Ethics requirement that counselors establish counselor education and training programs that integrate academic study and supervised practice.

Required Texts

American Psychological Association. (2010). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, DC: Author.

Readings as assigned.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

Each student will:

1. Attend each class and complete all assignments and readings. Per C&D Program Attendance Policy, more than one unexcused absence will result in course failure.
2. Participate and contribute to class discussions and activities.

All written assignments must be typed and must follow APA format unless indicated by instructor. Grading on written work will consider the following factors: quality of written work and adherence to requirements of assignment. As a graduate student, it is expected that all your work will be turned in on the assigned dates. A late assignment will be subject to a grade penalty.

Course Materials

All Practicum materials are located on Blackboard under the Counseling Program Organization page. Click the Practicum and Internship link located on the left-hand side. You should print out copies of the Information for SC On-Site Supervisor, Supervision Agreement, Log of Hours, Mid-Term Evaluation and Final Evaluation forms for your site supervisor, and any other relevant materials.

Assignments

- 1. A minimum of 200 (PSC), 300 (Agency) hours in the field placement. If you entered the C&D program after summer 2007 and/or are planning to pursue licensure as an LPC in the state of VA, you will need to complete 300 site hours per semester, 120 hours of these hours should be direct (face-to-face) client hours. Given that this is your first semester at your site, the program will allow a minimum of 85 direct hours, however, you will need to accumulate additional hours in your internship to reach the 240 direct client hour requirement. Hours spent in class or at home preparing GMU assignments may not be counted toward the hour requirement. Achieving the hours required to pass this class is the sole responsibility of the student.

The Supervision Agreement signed by you and your on-site supervisor is due by September 12. On-site Supervisors will then be contacted directly by the University Supervisor to initiate the collaborative supervisory relationship and answer any questions about the Supervision Agreement.

Participation. As a class that focuses on learning from practical experiences of the students, this class places a heavy emphasis on processing of information through class discussion, small group discussion, and participating in experiential activities. In addition, because the class will be so interactive and experiential, there is no way to “get the information” from a missed class—the class experience cannot be replicated. For these reasons, your class attendance and active participation is vital not only to your learning, but to your classmates learning as well. Several factors will go into your participation grade, including:

- attendance (every student is expected to be at every class),
  - punctuality (every student is expected to be ready to go when class begins, and to stay for the duration of class time),
  - active participation in class exercises (key is active, contributing ideas, giving feedback, participating in group discussions)
  - substantive contributions to class discussions (not quantity of contributions, but contributions that demonstrate thoughtful analysis of information; comments that move discussion forward; comments based on knowledge and experience, not just opinion; and a demonstrated ability to propose new ideas and/or build on others’ ideas in a meaningful way)
- 2. Two Recorded Counseling Sessions for Review/Feedback. Students will record at least two counseling sessions with students and play the recordings during group supervision in order to receive feedback and consultation from the instructor and peers. Students will present their student-client presentation during group supervision in order to receive feedback and consultation from the group. For the group supervision case presentation, interns should provide the class with a brief, 1-2 page handout that includes: a brief summary of the client's presenting problem; background, and/or identifying data; discussion of the counseling process, including number of sessions, the nature of those sessions, strategies used, goals, attention to diversity/multicultural issues, use of multicultural counseling strategies, counselor thoughts about 'what's going on;' plans for future sessions, and an evaluation of counseling skills and effectiveness. These forms will be given to the instructor after class so that they may be shredded. Interns are required to obtain written parent permission prior to taping sessions with a minor. The original of the parent permission form should be kept in the school with the site supervisor, but the student should keep a copy of the form for his or her records. You will be required to transcribe one recording.

- 3. Transcripts and Tapes**. Students will hand in two video or audio tapes and accompanying transcripts and written narratives. Note, you must include a signed "permission to tape" form [See Required Forms in the P&I tab on Bb]. It is important to make sure your video or audiotape quality is of good enough quality for review. As with the case presentations, videotape is strongly encouraged. I strongly recommend that you begin taping from Week 1 so that taping is an integral part of your therapy process. By taping regularly, you will have plenty of tapes to choose from for this assignment. Choose a 10-minute segment of your tape to transcribe.

**The instructor may request additional counseling tapes from students based on overall assessments by the instructor and the Site Supervisor.*****

3. Targeted Intervention Project and Results Report (PSC). This is a Performance Based Assessment. Using the ASCA National Model (4th ed.) as a guide, students will develop an action plan for either a school counseling curriculum unit or a small group experience. Students should collaborate with their supervisor or other educators in developing the Unit or group, but the project should be the intern's primary responsibility. Students will collect data on the Unit or small group, and complete a Results Report (ASCA National Model, 3rd ed.) to analyze the program's effectiveness and make suggestions for future implementation of the program.

Based on this data analysis and consultation, students will create a simple document that:

- a. Outlines the identified concern found through data analysis (What is the issue?)
- b. Presents a basic needs assessment to address the concern (Who/what is needed to help?)
- c. Details a counseling program/intervention (e.g., training for parents/teachers; classroom lesson; group, etc.) that could address the concern (What we will do about it.)

This document should be presented to your site supervisor and other school stakeholders as well as to your Practicum class.

Final Supervisor Evaluation. This is a Performance-Based Assessment. Students are required to upload their final supervisor practicum evaluation to TK20 found under the "assessment" link in Blackboard.

Other Requirements

Paperwork- *Students cannot pass Practicum without this paperwork*.

1. Professional Counseling Liability Insurance. Student Counselors must purchase their own professional counseling liability insurance policy. Professional counseling organizations provide such coverage, some with association membership, and offer student rates.
2. Supervision Agreement and Goal Statement. Students are expected to read over and complete the Supervision Agreement with their site supervisor, as well as develop a one page Personal Goals Statement which describes goals particular to your needs and the experiences available at the site.
3. Satisfactory mid-semester and final evaluations from Site Supervisor. These evaluations should be completed by the site supervisor, and students should meet with their site supervisors to process these evaluations and receive verbal feedback on strengths and successes as well as areas for growth and goals for second half of the semester.
4. Log of hours. Completed and signed by on-site supervisor.

Grading

GRADED ASSIGNMENTS: Grades will be posted to Blackboard
Participation	20%
Case Presentations	20%

Professional Dispositions

See <https://cehd.gmu.edu/students/policies-procedures/>

Students must adhere to program professional dispositions:

<https://cehd.gmu.edu/assets/docs/forms/Professional%20Dispositions.pdf>

EDCD 755 is a pass or fail course. Students must achieve a passing grade in order to successfully complete/pass the requirements of Practicum. Students will be evaluated on the course requirements as listed above. It is expected that all students will demonstrate skills through class participation, presentations, evaluations, and assigned projects and papers. Consultation with university and on-site supervisors regarding the intern's performance will occur during the semester and scores lower than a three on your final evaluation from your on-site supervisor could result in course failure.

Selected performance-based assessment

The performance-based assessments for this course is the on-site supervisor final evaluation. This must be uploaded to Blackboard as part of the final grade. See rubric at the end of the syllabus.

TK20 PERFORMANCE-BASED ASSESSMENT SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

Every student registered for any Counseling & Development course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, On-Site Supervisor Final Evaluation; and Client Feedback Report, to Tk20 through Blackboard (regardless of whether the student is taking the course as an elective, a onetime course or as part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in Tk20 through Blackboard. Failure to submit the assessment to Tk20 (through Blackboard) will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required Tk20 submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

Seminar Guidelines

Privacy and Confidentiality: Seminar Discussions

1. It is expected that fellow students are provided the same level of confidence that is afforded counseling clients.
2. What is discussed within the seminar forum remains within the forum and is NOT discussed outside the seminar. Students need to feel that they are able to freely discuss in seminar both the successes and the trials they experience with their clients and with their newly-developing supervisory relationships.
3. It is expected that all students will honor the privacy of their peers as well as that of their clients.

Privacy and Confidentiality: Taping and Discussion of Cases

When tapes are used:

1. Students must provide the seminar leader with a copy of the client's informed consent for audio/videotaping and/or discussion or individual counseling sessions.
2. Students must always use pseudonyms and make sure that no identifying information is exposed during presentations, in write-ups or on audio or videotapes.
3. Presenters are responsible for ensuring that handouts or other information used in presentations are collected after class and destroyed as soon as practicable.
4. Under no circumstances will students bring to class original material or forms from the client's file at the practicum/internship site.
5. Tapes are not to be played in the presence of other students, professors, friends, relatives, etc., as this violates the client's informed consent. When finished, tapes must be erased completely and promptly. Tapes are never to be left in mailboxes or in public places where they could be lost or be reviewed by others.
6. Students in the seminar are expected to maintain confidence about cases that others present as well as about what other students share about their own experiences. Students need to feel that they are able to discuss freely both successes and trials they experience.

Peer Feedback

Each student brings to the seminar, and to her or his clients, a unique personal style informed by theory, by skills classes, and by their own experience. We also bring with us our insecurities about our abilities, as well as a strong desire to help our clients. What we need in the way of feedback from peers is good active listening, NOT advice. We all need to develop a sense of confidence in our instincts and our ability to interact therapeutically with our clients. As peers, we can facilitate the development of confidence in each other by drawing out each other's best reflective thoughts about the work we do. A good way to do this is to encourage each other to think more deeply or more creatively about our individual clients, to allow us to draw on our own developing resources to problem solve.

Giving advice, such as "I had a client like yours, you should read this great book on working with depression" or "you need to confront the discrepancies in your client's story" or "maybe you should try x or y" do not draw out the counselor's resources, they tell the counselor that we have the solution to their problem with a client. They are a covert way of imposing our own opinion on another. When we give advice, we mean well, but it isn't the most productive feedback. In reality, when it comes down to it, the counselor is the one in the room with the client; what better support can we give the counselor than to strengthen her or his confidence in her own abilities. Do offer feedback that challenges the counselor to draw out his best. "You seem discouraged about client x. Has it been that way all along" is a good opener. "When did you first feel as though you were at a stuck point?" "What was that like for you?" are open questions that promote self-discovery and can lead the counselor to understanding more about themselves and their clients.
