Prerequisites: Admission to Elementary Education graduate program; must be taken in programmatic sequence.

University Catalog Course Description: Introduces general methods of teaching and management in elementary schools with an emphasis on using the foundational principles of curriculum, instruction, assessment, and management to plan instruction for diverse learners.

Course Overview: This course examines methods of teaching children in PK-6 classrooms with an emphasis on understanding the overarching principles and interactions of curriculum, instruction, assessment, and management, as well as the components of highly effective lessons. Teacher candidates will explore multiple models of instructional planning to design and implement developmentally appropriate and engaging lessons. Teacher candidates will consider various models of management for creating a positive environment for learning.

Course Delivery Method: This course will be delivered primarily face to face, as well as online synchronously and asynchronously via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal, Google drive, and Zoom. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on Monday, August 16th, 2021.

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

This course will be delivered using multiple instructional strategies and formats including face to face, synchronous and asynchronous online meetings. Individual session formats vary and may include mini-lessons, small group/large group discussion, hands-on, interactive work, student presentations, and cooperative learning. Practical applications of theory are explored via group activities. Each week, asynchronous activities should be completed prior to our synchronous class meetings.

Please note: This course requires 15 hours of field observation. Additional details are in the 'assignments' section.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#supported-browsers
- To get a list of supported operation systems on different devices see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#tested-devices-and-operating-systems
- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Zoom web conferencing tool
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
- The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download: [Add or delete options, as desire.]
 - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
 - Windows Media Player: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>

- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.

- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

Assignment and/or Evaluations:

High Leverage Practice Application: Small Conversations Activity (DUE October 4th) adapted from TeachingWorks at the University of Michigan

A key component of teaching is building positive relationships with students. This can be done through listening to children, honoring their ideas and experiences, interacting with them as learners. Small conversations done well help convey respect and care. Small conversations that are done poorly can negatively impact student learning and self-efficacy. The purpose of this assignment is to provide you with an opportunity to prepare for and practice a small conversation with elementary students. It includes three key parts

- 1) Identify 3-4 students (ideally in a small group that you will use for your lesson planning PBA) and prepare for the small conversations. Your conversation preparation should include a launch, talking turns and a closing. A template will be provided
- 2) Enact the small conversations, recording the audio of these using your phone. Upload these with your final assignment.
- 3) Select two-three conversations to transcribe and analyze. A template will be provided for the transcription and the analysis.

Morning Meeting Assignment (DUE October 8th)

A key component of a Responsive Classroom is Morning Meeting. The purpose of this assignment is to develop an awareness of the components of Morning Meeting and provide practice with designing and leading a morning meeting. You will collaborate with your mentor teacher and/or peers to co-plan/co-lead one Morning Meeting lesson. This will include

- 1) a 20 min Morning Meeting lesson (using the Mason lesson plan template) that includes the following components: Greeting, Sharing, Activity, Message.
- 2) Implement the morning meeting with your peer (shared placement) and/or with your mentor teacher. You may also elect to lead it on your own.
- 3) Record and upload your Morning Meeting lesson implementation to GoReact,
- 4) Reflect upon Morning Meeting implementation with your peers (grade level) or placement group.

Lesson Planning and Implementation Assignment (DUE November 8th)

A key portion of this class is understanding the basic principles of effective instructional planning and implementation. The purpose of this performance-based assessment is to provide you an opportunity to develop a research-supported lesson plan that effectively meets the needs of a specific population of students. In your lesson, you will purposefully plan instruction using your understanding of the developmental needs of students in your observation classroom. You will complete one instructional cycle (planning, instruction, assessment, reflection/future planning). This assignment includes the following elements:

This assignment has three components:

- 1) An introduction to your classroom community which should include
 - a) A description of your school and general grade level expectations.
 - b) A description of your students.
 - i) As you describe your students, connections should be made to their developmental characteristics and academic readiness and how these connect with course and program readings (e.g., Yardsticks).
 - c) A rationale for your instructional decisions based on what you know about your students.
- 2) A detailed lesson plan with the following elements:
 - a) Standards
 - b) Objectives/KUDs
 - c) Procedures
 - d) Checks for Understanding
 - e) Assessment
 - f) Accommodations/Modifications
 - g) Differentiation
 - h) Technology Considerations if applicable
- 3) A two-phased reflection on instruction including (if applicable during COVID*)
 - a) 5-10 min sample video portion of the lesson with reflective comments
 - b) A summative reflective statement and goal setting for future planning/instruction

The PBA will be evaluated based on adherence to the provided lesson plan format; consistency with instructional methods taught in the course; appropriate rationale provided; specification of objectives, as related to state and national standards; appropriate match between assessment of learning and learning objectives; coherence of writing and mechanics, and reflection on instructional practices. Careful attention should be paid to designing lessons that balance teacher instruction with student engagement in learning activities. Further, each plan should consider the needs of individual students and incorporate activities that address students' basic competencies and scaffold their understand to more complex understandings. As elementary teacher candidates, your plans should also include evidence of open-ended questioning.

NOTE: It is recommended that you focus this assignment on a literacy lesson that incorporates a read aloud and gradual release application of literacy skill (Blooms questioning, elicitation thinking, comprehending, predicting, story elements, etc...)

Planning, Instruction, and Management Inquiry (DUE November 22nd)

Across the semester, we will engage in course and field activities that support exploration of the following inquiry:

In what ways do planning, instruction, management, and knowledge of learners intersect in the elementary classroom?

This assignment includes three investigations to be conducted during your field hours. For each investigation a guided observation and exploration document will be provided in class. The observation document will scaffold connections between course readings, activities, and discussion and your field work.

- Investigation 1: Climate, Culture, Community
- Investigation 2: Elements of Lesson Planning
- Investigation 3: Teacher Language; Rules/Norms, Procedures, Minor Misbehaviors, Significant Behavior Challenges
- Summative Reflection
 - The final component of the assignment requires you to synthesize your investigations from across the semester and reconsider the inquiry question: In what ways do planning, instruction, management, and knowledge of learners intersect in the elementary classroom?

Classroom Management Plan (DUE December 3rd)

You will begin to develop an in-depth classroom management plan that serves as an overview of what a teacher does to prepare for the new school year. Your plan should include connections to readings and discussions from across the semester, with an emphasis on culturally relevant and anti-racist principles, and should include the following components:

- An overview of your management philosophy (1-2 paragraphs)
 - Consider the various management models discussed in class as you think about the key ideas that will guide how you manage your classroom.
 - Describe what you believe to be the most important principles in working with children. Elaborate on why you think these principles are important.
- A schematic diagram of your classroom
 - Include a map.
 - Provide a brief description of how your diagram is informed by each of the six features of classroom design.
- A professional Welcome to the School Year letter to families
 - Introduce yourself and a bit about you.
 - Include your general beliefs about teaching/goals for the year.
 - Consider including a broad overview of key content.
 - Close with methods for communication/contact.
- A description for 10 anticipated procedures and routines
 - Description should include what each will look/sound like.
- A description of your plan for creating/establishing classroom rules or norms
- A description of your plan for addressing misbehaviors
 - Include distinctions between minor misbehaviors, more significant/persistent misbehaviors, and serious behavioral challenges.

Other Requirements:

Attendance and Participation

It is expected that you attend all face to face, synchronous and asynchronous online meetings outlined within the syllabus. Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service, and medical emergencies are exceptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent for any of these reasons, please make arrangements at least 48 hours in advance. In addition, you are expected to be on time to class unless 48 hours advance notice has been provided to the instructor.

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you have the opportunity to offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers; therefore, you are expected to contribute to face to face, synchronous and asynchronous online discussions and activities as well as genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. In addition, you are expected to be prepared for each class, which means having completed all assigned readings and tasks for that class.

Your participation includes completion of all face to face, synchronous and asynchronous application activities. This includes but is not limited to

- Contributions to whole group and small group discussions, including literature circles
- NearPod responses
- Lesson plan analyses
- Graphic organizers and activities associated with weekly content

All written papers are expected to be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and in 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial). APA format is expected. If you do not have a 7th Edition APA manual, the OWL at Purdue is an excellent resource.

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

Please Note: The GMU Writing Center offers online support via email. They will provide feedback on your writing within one hour. Professional writing can be difficult; I encourage you to take advantage of this service. http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/?page_id=177

All assignments are to be completed by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. All assignments must be submitted on the due date stated within the syllabus (see below) and should be submitted in the format indicated by the instructor in class.

Note: I reserve the right to add, alter, or omit any assignment as necessary during the course of the semester. You will always receive advanced notice of any modifications.
