Name: Yvonne M. Parrotte, M.Ed., C-IAYT, RYT 500

Office hours: By Appointment

Office location/phone: Zoom, Collaborate

Email: yparrott@gmu.edu

Prerequisites/Corequisites: NONE

University Catalog Course Description:

Introduces students to philosophical foundations of meditation. Guides in the practice of meditation and its application to daily mental focus and concentration.

Course Overview:

Introduction to Meditation will provide an opportunity to understand the philosophical, neurochemical and practical aspects of meditation, including its origins, uses and benefits. The emphasis will be on learning through experience, both with in-class exercises and home practice. Topics covered will range from development of concentration to compassion practice and self-understanding, including the associated positive brain changes documented in scientific research.

Course Delivery Method:

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using a synchronous format via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal and Zoom. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available prior to class time on 21 Aug 5pm. Class meets every Tuesday and Thursday.

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements:

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported Browsers see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#supported-browsers. To get a list of supported operation systems on different devices see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#tested-devices-and-operating-systems.
- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students may need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
- The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:
  - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
  - Windows Media Player: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>
  - Apple Quick Time Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download

Expectations:

- Course Week:

Our course week will begin on the day that our synchronous meetings take place as indicated on the Schedule of Classes.
- Log-in Frequency:

Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 2 times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
- Participation:

Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions. Work is not accepted late.
- Technical Competence:

Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:

Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:

Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due. Work is not accepted late.

- Instructor Support:

Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

- Netiquette:

The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

- Accommodations:

Online learners who require effective accommodations to insure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives:

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

1. Define meditation and its benefits.
2. State the need for and importance of centering and breathing practices.
3. Develop proficiency in the practice of four types of pranayama.
4. Demonstrate techniques of progressive relaxation.
5. Demonstrate a sitting pose, including proper alignment.
6. Identify the 5-stage meditation process and demonstrate a working knowledge of refining focus and awareness.
7. Describe benefits of systematic relaxation and meditation.
8. Build their own practice.

Required Text: None

Other readings and/or videos as assigned and posted on Blackboard

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

Assignments and/or Examinations

Journaling - 15 points

- Students will maintain a computer-created journal describing their formal meditation practice as well as their informal mindfulness practices in daily life. Exercising, eating, sleeping, speaking, listening and practicing gratitude are some areas which can embody mindfulness practices.

Final Exam - 15 points

- A written final exam will reflect the student's understanding of major information presented in class. A thorough exam review and Q & A session will insure clarity of ideas prior to the exam day.

Attendance 70%

- Because this is largely an experiential course, regular attendance is very important. Attendance and participation is mandatory for this class. Students will be excused from class with a note from a health care provider. The note must be presented immediately upon return to the class. The note may also be emailed to the instructor. Emails and texts do not excuse an absence but are helpful in planning the class session.

Summary Grading: The course will be graded on a 100 point scale comprised of 70 points for attendance and participation, 15 points for journaling assignments and 15 points for the final project

Grading Scale:

A+ 97-100 A 94-96 A- 90-93

B+ 88-89 B 84-87 B- 80-83

C+ 78-79 C 75-77
