Course Description

EDLE 620: Organizational Theory and Leadership Development (3:3:0) Studies basic organizational theories and models of leadership and management. Emphasizes shared leadership in professional environments, communication skills, systems thinking, and personal and organizational change. Bridges theory to practical applications in educational settings.

General Goals: Organizational Theory and Leadership Development is intended to provide students with an opportunity to explore meanings of leadership in schools, leaders' role in school change and restructuring; and ways school leaders make sense of school organization. Students will explore both how organizations function and leadership choices within organizations, and they will have an opportunity to begin to develop a vision of their leadership practice and situate this practice within a perspective of how school organizations work.

Course Delivery Method

This is a HYBRID course using Zoom, face-to-face & Asynchronous formats via the Blackboard learning management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal and Zoom, accessible on Blackboard. You can log in to the Blackboard course site using your Mason email name (everything before @ gm.u.edu) and email password. The course site will be available by August 22nd.

Technology Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with a standard up-to-date browser, either Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox is required (note: Opera and Safari are not compatible with Blackboard).
- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course. Per university policy in compliance with federal law, the professor will only communicate with students via their GMU email accounts, and will be unable to respond to emails sent from other accounts (i.e., Gmail, Yahoo, work email, etc.). Any announcements regarding the course will be sent to your GMU account. I will respond to emails within 48 hours, excluding weekends.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
- Video/Screencasting Tools: You will use Kaltura, Jing, Zoom, or Camtasia to record your introduction videos, responses and Platform of Beliefs assignment.

Expectations

- Log-in Frequency: Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 3 times per week.
- Participation: Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which include viewing of all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues: Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly.
- Workload: Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support: Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

- Netiquette: The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.
- Accommodations: Learners who require effective accommodations to insure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Course Learning Objectives

1. Understand the meaning and significance of the education leader's personal vision and core beliefs in school organizations;
2. Explore and differentiate traditional and critical leadership and organizational theories and their relationship to the study and practice of education leadership; and
3. Engage multiple conceptual and theoretical tools and strategies for observing, describing, and analyzing leadership cases for organizational change and school improvement.

Course Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. Define, identify, and articulate the meaning and significance of the education leader's personal vision and core beliefs in school organizations.
2. Construct and articulate a vision of effective school leadership as supported by their personal values and core beliefs around leadership, teaching, and learning.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of traditional and critical leadership and organizational theories and their relationship to the field of education leadership.

4. Compare and contrast the theoretical assumptions and traditional organizational theories that inform Bolman & Deal's four-frame model for analyzing organizational behaviors and outcomes.
5. Develop leadership cases that reflect connections between leadership and organizational theory, research, and practice.
6. Analyze leadership cases and scenarios through the practice of framing and reframing.

Program Learning Objectives

The Education Leadership program is designed to prepare candidates for leadership and management positions in a variety of educational settings. The program emphasizes an understanding of the complexities of change in schools, communities, and organizations. This is the first class in the licensure sequence in Education Leadership and is therefore intended to introduce students to theory and practice in school leadership. Theory introduced in this class will be used throughout the program to frame candidate's thinking about leadership practice and decision making.

National Standards and Virginia Competencies

Each M.Ed. licensure course has at least one Performance-Based Assessment (PBA) as required by the program. The PBA for this course is the Reframing Paper.

The course addresses a variety of the NELP Standards, focusing primarily on the following: Standards 1.1, 1.2, 3.3, 4.3, 4.4, and corresponding components of the Virginia Standards for School Leaders:

The NELP standards for building-level leadership preparation address the most critical knowledge and skill areas for beginning building-level educational leaders. These standards align to national leadership practice standards and research on effective leadership practice, input from key stakeholder communities, and the four Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) principles—(A) The Learner and Learning, (B) Content, (C) Instructional Practice, and (D) Professional Responsibility. The Education Leadership Department began the transition to NELP standards in the fall of 2021 and students beginning his/her program on or after that time will be following the NELP standards.

NELP Standard Component 1.1 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to collaboratively evaluate, develop, and communicate a school mission and vision designed to reflect a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community.

NELP Standard Component 1.2 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to lead improvement processes that include data use, design, implementation, and evaluation.

NELP Standard Component 3.3 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to evaluate, cultivate, and advocate for equitable, inclusive, and culturally responsive instruction and behavior support practices among teachers and staff.

NELP Standard Component 4.3 Program completers understand and can demonstrate the capacity to evaluate, develop, and implement formal and informal culturally responsive and accessible assessments that support data-informed instructional improvement and student learning and well-being.

NELP Standard Component 4.4 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to collaboratively evaluate, develop, and implement the school's curriculum, instruction, technology, data systems, and assessment practices in a coherent, equitable, and systematic manner.
