University Catalog Course Description

Provides supervised practice in a school counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work with an emphasis on the counseling process. Develops skills in case conceptualization, assessing needs, and applying counseling knowledge and skills with clients under supervision.

Course Overview

This course provides supervised practice for a minimum of 300 hours in a counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work. This is a weekly graduate class with an emphasis on the counseling process.

The Internship I course is an arranged, supervised experience in counseling. The course aims to provide skills in working towards social justice, developing advanced multicultural counseling intervention skills, developing skills in leadership and advocacy in order to effectively design and implement school-based programs, and developing ways to improve theoretical conceptualizations of applied interventions. Thus, the focus of the course will be on providing professional counseling within the parameters of the George Mason University Counseling Program mission, e.g., multiculturalism, advocacy, leadership, and social justice.

This course will include relevant and emerging topics for Internship I students, and will include time for group discussion. During the semester, students will present, discuss, and conceptualize their counseling work. They will explore culturally specific interventions and applications of social justice to their counseling work. Group supervision will allow students to process and receive feedback on current students they are working with and other professional issues they are experiencing at their sites. Students will have opportunities to discuss specific site-related issues, process personal reactions, and strategize about techniques and interventions.

Because of the serious nature of this work, it is essential that students discuss their reactions and feelings. Such discussions, however, cannot take place outside the context of a supervised class or appropriate site circumstance. You may not discuss cases in other classes, with friends or relatives, or in social situations since it is essential to maintain confidentiality. Violations of this principle in any form will be treated as a serious ethical/legal infraction. It is also imperative that you discuss cases with your on-site supervisor. If you have questions or concerns that need immediate attention, please call or email the instructor.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using a blended synchronous and asynchronous format via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on January 25, 2023

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see:
https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#supported-browsers

To get a list of supported operation systems on different devices see:

https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#tested-devices-and-operating-systems

- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
 - The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:
 - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
 - Windows Media Player:
<https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>

Participation:

Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.

- Technical Competence:

Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.

Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

- Netiquette:

The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. Course Materials

All Internship materials are located on Blackboard under the Counseling Program Organization page. Click the School Counseling P&I link located on the left-hand side. You should print out copies of the Information for CMHC On-Site Supervisor, Supervision Agreement, and Evaluation forms for your site supervisor, and any other relevant materials.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, VIA, hard copy).

Each student will:

1. Attend each class and complete all assignments and readings. Per Counseling Program Attendance Policy, more than one unexcused absence will result in course failure.
2. Participate and contribute to class discussions and activities.

All written assignments must be typed and must follow APA format unless indicated by instructor. Grading on written work will consider the following factors: quality of written work and adherence to requirements of assignment. As a graduate student, it is expected that all your work will be turned in on the assigned dates. A late assignment will be subject to a grade penalty.

Assignments and/or Examinations

A minimum of 300 hours in the field placement. Hours spent in class or at home preparing GMU assignments may not be counted toward the hour requirement. Final site hours log must be signed by student and on-site supervisor, and submitted no later than May 3, 2023. Achieving the hours required to pass this class is the sole responsibility of the student.

As part of your hour's requirements, internship students must gain experience leading or co-leading a counseling group.

The Supervision Agreement signed by you and your on-site supervisor is due by February 1, 2023. On-site Supervisors will then be contacted directly by the University Supervisor to initiate the collaborative supervisory relationship and answer any questions about the Supervision Agreement. A site-visit (via phone or Zoom) with the On-site Supervisor University Supervisor, and student will be scheduled around the time of the mid-term evaluation.

Class Participation. Students in counseling courses are expected to demonstrate a high level of participation consistent with graduate-level education. Students are expected to: be on time and present for the duration of the class; demonstrate engagement (ask questions, share thoughts); be respectful and attentive; and demonstrate preparedness for each class meeting. You will be asked to give feedback and discuss each other's case presentations, discuss the course reading(s), and be active in other class discussion.

Recorded Counseling Sessions. Students will hand in two audio recordings. Note, you must procure a signed "permission to tape" form [See Required Forms in the School Counseling P&I tab on Bb] and retain a copy for your files. It is important to make sure that your recording quality is of good enough quality for review.

The instructor may request additional counseling tapes from students based on overall assessments by the instructor and the Site Supervisor. **

Case Conceptualization Presentation. (Key Assignment: KPI A.5.b.1; CACREP 2.F.5.g, 2.F.5.h / KPI A.9-SC.a.2; CACREP 5.G.2.a) Students will present one student client during group supervision in order to receive feedback and consultation from the group. You are permitted to present a client from one of your required tapings, if desired. The presentation and discussion will provide you the opportunity to discuss your client's concerns, personal reactions, difficulties, etc. Students will have the opportunity to receive feedback peers and the instructor for personal and professional growth.

Written Narrative: Students will submit a 1-2-page narrative providing a brief description of your student client and his or her presenting issue. In addition, state the primary focus that you are working on with your student client and the theoretical orientation from which you are working. You should also include a discussion on whether the interventions were effective or ineffective. Note all case-relevant ethical and diversity considerations. Lastly, include an evaluation of your strengths and weaknesses as a counselor.

Targeted Intervention Project and Results Report. Using the ASCA National Model (4th ed.) as a guide, students will develop an action plan for either a school counseling curriculum unit or a small group experience. Students should collaborate with their supervisor or other educators in developing the Unit or group, but the project should be the intern's primary responsibility. Students will collect data on the Unit or small group, and complete a Results Report (ASCA National Model, 4th ed.) to analyze the program's effectiveness and make suggestions for future implementation of the program.

Based on this data analysis and consultation, students will create a simple document that:

- a. Outlines the identified concern found through data analysis (What is the issue?)
- b. Presents a basic needs assessment to address the concern (Who/what is needed to help?)
- c. Details a counseling program/intervention (e.g., training for parents/teachers; classroom lesson; group, etc.) that could address the concern (What we will do about it)

This document should be presented to your site supervisor and other school stakeholders as well as to your Practicum class.

Final Supervisor Evaluation. Students are required to send a link for their supervisor to fill out the evaluation online. This link will be provided by your instructor at midterm.

Other Requirements

Paperwork- Students cannot pass Internship without this paperwork.

1. Professional Counseling Liability Insurance. Student Counselors must purchase their own professional counseling liability insurance policy. Professional counseling organizations provide such coverage, some with association membership, and offer student rates.
2. SC Internship Agreement. Students are expected to read over and complete the Internship contract with their site supervisor.
3. Satisfactory mid-semester and final evaluations from Site Supervisor. These evaluations should be completed by the site supervisor, and students should meet with their site supervisors to process these evaluations and receive verbal feedback on strengths and successes as well as areas for growth and goals for second half of the semester.
4. Monthly Log of Hours. Completed and signed each month by Site Supervisor. A final summary log of hours should also be signed by the Site Supervisor at the end of Internship I.

Course Expectations

APA Format: Students in Counseling & Development courses are expected to use APA style (7th ed.) for written papers.

Electronic Devices

Turn off and put away all electronic communication devices during class. Cell phones, pagers, and other communicative devices are not allowed in this class. Please keep them stowed away and out of sight. Laptops or tablets (e.g. iPads) may be permitted for the purpose of taking notes only. Engaging in activities not related to the course (e.g. gaming, email, chat, text, etc.) will result in a significant reduction in your participation grade. Notify the instructor prior to class if you have an emergency situation that requires accommodation.

Attendance

In accordance with the policies of the Counseling Program, on-time attendance at every class meeting is expected. Late arrival to class will impact class participation grade. Two or more unexcused absences will result in loss of course credit. Attendance on the first day of class is required. Excused absences are permitted for illness, religious holidays, or emergency situations only; documentation is required for the absence to be considered excused. Work-related absences are not considered excused.

Course Requirements

Each student is expected to do the following: (1) attend each class, (2) complete all reading assignments before class, (3) arrive on time and stay for the entire class period, (4) participate in discussions and in-class work groups, (5) regularly check GMU email, and (6) submit or access documents via Blackboard as assigned.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a violation of both the George Mason University code of honor and the expected professional dispositions of the Counseling & Development Program. The GMU English Department has developed the following statement regarding plagiarism: “Plagiarism means using the exact words, opinion, or factual information from another person without giving that person credit. Writers give credit through the use of accepted documentation styles, such as parenthetical citation, footnotes, or end notes; a simple listing of books and articles is not sufficient. Plagiarism is the equivalent of intellectual robbery and cannot be tolerated in an academic setting. Student writers are often confused as to what should be cited. Some think that only direct quotations need to be credited. While direct quotations do need citations, so do paraphrases and summaries of opinions or factual information formerly unknown to the writers or which the writers did not discover themselves. Exceptions to this include factual information which can be obtained from a variety of sources, the writer's own insights or findings from their own field research, and what has been termed common knowledge. What constitutes common knowledge can sometimes be precarious, and what is common knowledge for one audience may be so for another. In such situations, it is helpful to keep the reader in mind and to think of citations as being reader friendly. In other words, writers provide a citation for any piece of information that they think their readers might want to investigate further. Not only is this attitude considerate of readers and establishes credibility, it will almost certainly ensure that writers will never be guilty of plagiarism.”

Grading

EDCD 794 is a pass/fail course. Students must achieve a “B” or higher in order to successfully complete/pass the requirements of Internship I and move on to Internship II. Included in the assignments is the requirement that the following must also be met to receive a passing grade:

- Completion of all assignments of acceptable quality, turned in by date due.
- Attendance at all classes and at internship site. Absences must be pre-arranged, unless due to an emergency. Please notify instructor and on-site supervisor, as appropriate. Two or more unexcused absences will result in course failure. Late arrival will impact class participation grade.
- Active classroom participation, including providing constructive feedback and suggestions for classmates.
- Completion of required site hours, recorded and signed on log of hours
- Satisfactory mid-term and final evaluation from on-site supervisor.

Summary of Grading System and Course Requirements

Professional Dispositions

See <https://cehd.gmu.edu/students/polices-procedures/>

Students must adhere to program professional dispositions:

<https://cehd.gmu.edu/assets/docs/forms/Professional%20Dispositions.pdf>

Professional Dispositions Assessment

Professional Dispositions Assessment are completed by instructors in all courses except electives and field experience courses (Practicum: 750/751; Internship 1: 792/793; and Internship 2: 794/795). In electives and field experience courses, instructors or supervisors may choose to complete a Professional Disposition Assessment should the need arise. In field experience classes, University and Site Supervisors will assess students on a Student Evaluation that is specific to P&I.

A developmental approach to PD Assessment is used, understanding that students are developing in their awareness, skills, and abilities throughout the course of the Counseling Program. In general, students in “basic or pre-practicum level” courses may demonstrate the disposition sometimes or inconsistently. Students in “intermediate or practicum level” courses should demonstrate the disposition more often or frequently. The courses are assigned to levels as follows:

Course Level	Courses
Basic (Pre-Practicum)	Core: 602, 601, 525, 603, 609, 606, 604, 656 CMHC: 654, 652, 658 SC: 613, 611, 626
Intermediate (Practicum)	Core: 608, 660, 628, 619, 610, 797

Professional Dispositions assessments are scored as follows:

- 4: Consistently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition all or almost all of the time. This rank is considered exceptional, particularly for students who are at the beginning of their program. Students who are advanced in the program (i.e., in their last year of the program and enrolled in Internship I or II) should expect to achieve this rank.
- 3: Frequently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition often or most of the time. It is expected that students in the middle of the program (i.e., usually the second year for full time or third year for part time students) will achieve this rank. This reflects that they have moved beyond the initial phase of counselor training and are developing well towards being a professional counselor.
- 2: Sometimes Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition sometimes or inconsistently. It is expected that students at the beginning of the program (i.e., first year for most students) will achieve this rank. Students at the beginning of the program are expected to be developing towards these professional dispositions as a part of their counselor training and preparation for their future as a professional counselor.

- 1: Seldom Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition rarely or not at all. In some instances, this may also indicate a harmful demonstration of professional disposition(s). Students at the beginning of their program may achieve this rank, which can be developmentally appropriate as they learn the expectations for students and future professional counselors. Should this occur, students should expect to meet with their advisor, who will assist them in addressing the area of concern.
- N/A: Not Applicable – An instructor or supervisor may use this to note that they did not have the opportunity to observe the disposition or that it was not relevant in the given context. This is most likely to occur at the beginning of the program when some dispositions may not be germane to the particular class.
