The course site will be available in accordance with the posted start date.

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see: Browser support \(https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#supported-browsers\)

Expectations

- Course Modules:
Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day and given the compressed nature of this seven-week course, recommended due dates for the first seven modules appear in the calendar (below). Please adhere to this schedule. No work will be accepted after 27 June 2024.
- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 3 times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of the course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always reread their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

- Accommodations:

Online learners who require effective accommodations to ensure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Learner Outcomes

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, VIA, hard copy).

Assignments and Examinations

Final Exam. You will complete and submit a five item essay test. Each item will be an ethics scenario. You will identify all portions of the Ethics Code for Behavior Analysts and of the Commonwealth of Virginia Behavior Analyst Licensure Regulations that pertain to the scenario. Next, you will give at least three possible courses of action based on the Ethics Code, the Virginia Licensure Regulations, and the readings and discussions throughout the course. Finally, you will identify the course of action you would select and would give the rationale for selecting that course of action over the other two. Up to 100 points may be earned on the final examination.

Recorded Material Quizzes. For modules indicated in the course calendar, there will be quiz questions after each recording, with a total of 148 quiz questions worth 1 point each distributed across those five modules. You must complete those quizzes during the module for which they're assigned. For timed quizzes, you will have 1.5 minutes per question, or a quiz availability time of 1.5 times the number of questions on that quiz. Once you answer a question, you may not return to it. The fill in the blanks quiz in Module 7 is worth 25 points.

Mandated Reporter Training. During the Module indicated on the syllabus, you will go to this website - <http://www.dss.virginia.gov/abuse/mr.cgi> - and complete the Child Abuse: Recognizing, Reporting, and Responding for Educators training course that is there. You will submit the certificate of completion that comes with this course by the date indicated on the syllabus for 5 points. Note: If you have already completed the child training for another course or for your employment, please complete the adult training and submit that certificate of completion.

Final Exam Preparation Practice. Prior to class time for modules 5, 6, and 7, you will be presented with two scenarios. You will complete the Decision Sequence indicated for each scenario and will submit that completed decision sequence by the due date. You will receive detailed feedback on your analysis and final summation during the following module. Each submitted Decision Sequence is worth up to 2 points. These six completed decision sequences (two for each of modules 5, 6, and 7) will provide you practice for your final exam, in that you will be doing the same sort of analysis and final summation on these as you will for your final, and so these are considered quizzes.

EDSE 619 Final Exam. During the first module of this course, you will complete the EDSE 619 Final Exam that your instructor gives when they teach that course. Each question you answer correctly will be worth 0.2 points. A total of 10 points is possible for this text. Your instructor will provide you with detailed feedback regarding your performance no later than the end of module four. You may use this information as you prepare for your certification exam.

Reaction Papers. During the modules indicated in the course calendar, you will view videos prepared for this course in which Dr. Hoch interviews members of our field who are experts in areas pertinent to the content of this course. After viewing each recording, you will prepare and submit a brief paper, following the instructions for that video presentation, in which you summarize the video's content, discuss its relation to other content of this course, and otherwise indicate how it will be useful in your practice. Each of these papers is worth up to 5 points.

Course Policies and Expectations

Attendance/Participation

You will schedule your interteaching group discussions with your other groupmates, and you are expected to attend every discussion and to be on time. Being late to a discussion will be disruptive to others, as your classmates may have already split into groups, and may already have begun their discussions. Please attend every session, please be on time, and please stay until the discussion is complete. As mentioned above, 5 points is possible per discussion— 4 if you are late, 4 if you leave early, and 3 if you are late and leave early. Missed points cannot be made up.

Late Work

No work will be accepted after the last day of the course. Please adhere to the recommended due dates listed in the calendar below.

Grading (traditional rounding principles apply)

93-100% = A
90-92% = A-
87-89% = B+
